

"It is rare and important work. It is also a prestigious survey that is scheduled to be conducted in seven districts. This may create a new problem as the Centre may decide to withdraw the entire funding for the survey."

Questioning the CM's rationale for linking the mental health patterns, and characteristics of mental health problems in adolescents and adults across all states and Union Territories. Among other things, the survey, which began in 2024 and is scheduled to run till 2026, evaluates state-level mental health infrastructure.
